

Schedule of Events

8:45-9am: Welcome and overview of the day at the Newmarket Recreation Center, located at 1 Terrace Drive, Newmarket

9:05-9:35: First presentations offered

9:35-10:05: Second presentations offered

10:15: Travel time! Visit the highlighted conservation sites in town. Drive yourself or take a Recreation Center van.

10:30-Noon*: The Conservation Commission will have folks at each site to talk about the special histories and features of the site.

*A volunteer group will be at Heron Point during this time for the trail project.

Don't forget to check out additional resources, the conservation scavenger hunt, and fun family activity kits at the Newmarket Public Library!

Contact Info

Newmarket Conservation Commission:

<https://www.newmarketnh.gov/conservation-commission>

Instagram: newmarketconservation

Facebook: Newmarket, NH Conservation Commission

Newmarket Recreation

<https://www.newmarketrec.org>

Instagram: newmarketrec

Facebook:

www.facebook.com/NewmarketRec
(603)659-8581

Newmarket Public Library

<https://newmarketlibrary.org>

Instagram: newmarketlibrary_nh

Facebook:

www.facebook.com/NewmarketPublicLibrary
(603)659-5311

Conservation Connections

Saturday,
October 2nd
8:30-Noon
at the Newmarket
Recreation Center
1 Terrace Drive,
Newmarket

Sponsored by the Newmarket
Conservation Commission,
Newmarket Recreation, and the
Newmarket Public Library

Join us for a day of education, exploration, and volunteerism!

Join your neighbors to learn something new at the Newmarket Rec Center.

Then take a guided exploration of a conservation property or help with a volunteer project at Heron Point.

How do I register?

Call the Newmarket Rec Department at 603-659-8581 to register! This event is free and open to everyone!

Sample Scheduled Presentations

- Local birding: learn what you'll see this time of year and noteworthy local spots
- Nature photography: Learn tips and tricks about how to tell rich stories with your photos.
- Kayak and Canoe trips: Learn about trips on the Lamprey and other local waterways, as well as rental equipment through the rec center.
- Bringing the Outdoors In: Learn about benefits that we get from nature, as well as tips about indoor plants.

Outdoor Sites

- Neal Mill Road: Overview of the project and trails
- Schoppmeyer Park: Learn about the adaptive sports launch and their outreach
- Piscassic-Loiselle: Learn about what this site offers the community, along with outdoor photography practice
- Heron Point: Assist with the volunteer effort and help with maintaining the trail or get an overview of the site.
- The Newmarket Public Library will provide family activity kits and additional resources at the library all week long!

